had substantively settled this matter. Doc. 117. That day, the Court issued an Order Re: 2 Settlement and Disposition, which vacated all dates/hearings previously set in this matter and 3 stated that in accordance with the provisions of Local Rule 16-160, dispositional documents 4 were to be filed on or before April 23, 2007. Doc. 118. 5 The parties and counsel have worked diligently to finalize the paperwork and complete the terms of their settlement agreement, which include the filing of a signed Stipulation and 6 [Proposed] Order for Voluntary Dismissal of All Claims With Prejudice (dispositional 7 8 documents). 9 On or about March 28, 2007, Plaintiff requested that the Stipulation and [Proposed] 6. 10 Order for Voluntary Dismissal of All Claims With Prejudice be filed after the other terms of the settlement agreement are completed, which the parties anticipate will take no more than ninety 11 12 additional days absent unforseen circumstances. Defendants have agreed to Plaintiff's request 13 subject to Court approval. For all the foregoing reasons, the parties stipulate to and request that this Court extend 14 15 the deadline to file dispositional documents from April 23, 2007 to July 23, 2007. 16 8. This stipulation is the parties' first request for an extension of time to file dispositional documents. 17 18 Dated: April ___, 2007 19 20 Dated: April ___, 2007 21 Respectfully submitted, 22 LAW OFFICE OF MARK E.
